

duc designer feature PURVI PADIA

Read below for an exclusive interview with the little client, Rehan, as he discusses his room, style, and designer (who just so happens to be his mom).

ducdud: How old are you?
Rehan Padia: 6

dd: Favorite subject? (no, recess and lunch don't count)
RP: Woodworking . . . but recess should count!

dd: What rule do you always break that drives your parents crazy?
RP: Getting out of bed in the morning before I am supposed to dd: How would you describe your style?

RP: My mom decides my style!

dd: If you could add one thing to your room, what would it be?
RP: An electric keyboard!

dd: What book are you currently in your Campaign bed before lights out?
RP: Harry Potter!
